ART I

(2022-2023 SYLLABUS)

Mrs. Ellington • Room 607 • ellingh@gcsnc.com

This art course serves as a prerequisite for all subsequent advanced art courses offered. Course content revolves around the Elements and Principles of Art, creative problem solving and art history. Students are exposed to a variety of media in two and three-dimensional areas of study. Basic drawing, which serves to strengthen students' perceptual and cognitive skills, will be the foundation upon which all further areas of study and mediums will be supported.

A BIT ABOUT YOUR TEACHER:

Mrs. Ellington is from Sailsbury, NC! Her favorite drink is none other than her hometown icon, Cheerwine! Prior to this year, Mrs. Ellington started the only graphic design course of its kind in the state at Kiser Middle School, which was her home for almost a decade! Outside of school, Mrs. Ellington loves traveling with her husband, Zack, and her 3 fur babies. She is also an avid Equestrian and loves the smallest of green creatures, Grogu!

BEHAVIOR AND CONSEQUENCES:

1. Receive a verbal warning.
2. Assigned seat will be moved.
3. Receive a phone call home to parent/gaurdian.
4. Schedule meeting with parent/gaurdian, student, and Mrs. Ellington.
5. Office/Administration Referral.
